

4. State the expression of direction of Mr. Karman's office started from Mrs. Adams' office!
5. Mention one example of asking for direction based on the dialog above!

Project Task

Do the following instructions.

Create a direction based on the following situations. Choose one situation and draw it.

1. Map your route from home to the school.
2. Map your route from home to the nearest bus station.
3. Map your route from home to town square.

Answer the following questions correctly.
The following dialog is for questions number 1 to 5.

- Mr. Jones : Hello Miss. Please tell me how do I get to Mr. Karman, the head of production in this company?
- Mrs. Adams : What is the purpose of your meeting with Mr. Karman?
- Mr. Jones : I will give this report to him. Please could you tell me the easiest way to get to Mr. Karman's office?
- Mrs. Adams : You just straight ahead until you reach the third floor.
- Mr. Jones : Okay, I get it.
- Mrs. Adams : Then, turn right. Mr. Karman's office is the second room after the stair.
- Mr. Jones : Thank you very much.
- Mrs. Adams : You're welcome.

Questions:

1. Where is the location of the conversation above?
2. Who is Mr. Karman?
3. In what floor is Mr. Karman's office?